keyslingo • free online keyboards

Japanese Romaji keyboard layout

ローマ字

The large character is typed by the key alone. Hold Shift for the one at top right. The small grey letter is the English key it sits on.

Type romaji and get hiragana at once: konnichiha becomes こんにちは. Space converts the kana to kanji, and the bar above the keys offers other choices, including katakana.

Best for: Everyone: it is how most people type Japanese.